Summer Courses for Teenagers

An international experience with inclusive social programme

Summer Courses for Teenagers (Chester)

This summer course, run on the Queen's School campus, is only for individual teenagers and "mini" groups (maximum 15 students per group). We create opportunities for students to increase their confidence in English at the same time as they learn about the culture and customs of other nations.

The morning lessons focus on actively improving communication in spoken English.

The afternoon excursion/activity programme creates the perfect environment to develop language, social and sporting skills.

KEY FACTS

- no large groups
- a high staff to student ratio (1:10)
- a maximum of 120 students
- an excellent nationality mix
- a varied, high quality social programme
- homestay accommodation with welcoming and caring families
